Gash Tsui (SOCIF, Co-Founder & CIO)

Gash is a Year 4 Computer Science student. He worked in multiple technology companies in the fields of cyber security and computer vision before and he believes that technology can improve living standard. After that, he founded SOCIF with his friends (Jason and Simon) and determined to impact the society with their collective skills and ideas. He is specialized in building the hardware and develop IoT applications related to machine learning.